KILOHANA ART LEAGUE'S FIRST AT HOME OF SEASON

Ibsen's "Peer Gynt" Afforded the Literary Entertainment for Norwegian Day.

The first of the monthly at homes of the Kilohana Art League for the season of 1900-1 was given at the rooms of the league in the Progress block yesterday afternoon. The attendance was very large, nearly all the women in the city in any way identified with art and educational work being present, as well as many social leaders. It was strictly a Norwegian afternoon. The entertainment was the reading of Ibsen's "Peer Gynt" by Mrs. Kinney, accompanied by music on the violin by Miss Kinney, with piano accompaniment by Miss Castle.

Out of tribute to the great Norwegian writer the room was made as strictly Norwegian as possible. Mesdames Graham and Rothwell had charge of the decorations. Over the little platform at the head of the room was draped a large Norwegian flag and instead of the usual palms so prominent in decorations here the greenery consisted of Norway pine branches and mountain ferns in imitation of the mosses of the northland. In the center of the room was a large block of ice surrounded by pine branches and the tea tables were similarly decorated, while a plaster of paris house model was covered with artificial snow. Notwithstanding that all the ladies were in the cooling whites and so't silks of the sunland they appreciated the cooling Norwegian breezes which swept through the hall.

The ladies in charge of the tea tables were Mesdames Dillingham, C. B. Cooper, W. W. Hall, Jordan and H. Mossman.

It has been decided by the league to give an "at home" the last Saturday of each month throughout the season, with the exception of the month of November, when owing to the semi-annual exhibition the reception will be held on Saturday, the 10th. The November "at home" will be a "Japanese day" and will be presided over by Mrs. Imanishi.

The regular business meeting of the league will be held at the art rooms in the Progress block next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which every member is expected to be present.

PROBATE COURT BUSINESS.

Judge Humphreys Issues New Rule About Court Papers.

In the estate of Charles F. Gulick the accounts of the executrix were approved last Friday by Judge Humphreys, and the masters report confirmed.

In the divorce proceedings which have been pending in the circuit court for some time between Sam Sin Tet and Lee Fa Young, his wife, the plaintiff filed a

John K. Prendergast, guardian of Kala Kaahue, filed his bond of $250 yesterday. He also filed a bond of $1,000 as administrator of the estate of Naomi Kaahue.

The habit of attorneys to file papers with the clerk and for various reasons to withdraw them later, thus confusing the records, has caused Judge Humphreys to promulgate the following rule: "Any clerk of this court who permits a document of any kind whatever to be withdrawn from the files by any person whomsoever, except upon the written order of one of the judges of this court, will be summarily discharged."

THE LUMBER TRUST A CURSE TO HONOLULU

day. "In Seattle and Olym lumber is selling for $8 a thousand. Sorting mounts up to 55 cents to the thousand. Then, too, cartage to and from the wharves adds another 75 cent on the thousand. Freightage here is 25¢ to $30, or a total of $19 for the 1000 of the lumber. But here lumber cannot be looked at for less than $25 a thousand. Is it any wonder we get on building materials from the coast?"

"When we first started in a representative came to us from All & Robinson, asking that we allow or order for lumber go their way. I told him that we would be very glad to help him if he would talk on anything but the local trust prices. He absolutely refused to go back on the local lumber rates, but promised that we did get 5 per cent off for cash. Why, you buy a single board here you can get 5 per cent discount for cash, and he had a contract for over 700,000 feet of lumber. We ordered our lumber from the coast and by so doing we saved enough to buy more than one fine birthday present."
